A WHITE HOUSE DINNER FOR GOV. AND MRS. ALLEN.

Marriage of Miss Rodgers and Mr. Westcott—Tenn and Fair.

Personal Notes.

The President and Mrs. McKinley entertained at dinner last night Governor Allen of Porto Rico and Mrs. Allen. Other guests present included Secretary and Miss Wilson, Major General Corbin and Young, and the late Mr. Allen, Captains Howard and Smedley, and Misses Hitchcock, Phelps and Hanna.

The marriage of Miss Emma Keats Rodgers, daughter of the late Capt. Rodgers, and Mr. Horace Westcott took place today at noon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Horace Westcott, in the city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mackay Smith officiated. Mr. John P. Story, Jr., was best man, and the bride's attendants were Miss Mary Sheridan and Miss Gera. The bride wore a white tulle veil. The bridesmaids wore white crepe dresses, with white hats, trimmed with black plumes. A large gathering attended the wedding breakfast, the company being made up of representatives of the naval and resident circles of this and other cities. The families of the bride and groom have been long identified. Mr. and Mrs. Westcott have lived in the city for many years, and expect to reside in this city upon their return.

Mrs. John H. Bryant was the hostess of the third large dancing party last night when a hundred of the friends of Bryant daughter, Miss Bryant, were entertained at the fine home of the family on Columbia road. Mrs. Bryant, in a rich black velvet, and her guests, in white, were assisted in receiving by Miss Grills, sister of the former, and Miss "Cassabach". The suite on the lower floor of the hall, which was decorated with flowers and trailing vines. The supper table was adorned with red blossoms. Capt. and Mrs. Sewell, who were married at All Souls' Church Monday, sailed today for Europe.

The reception this evening at the French embassy, which is in honor of the officers and cadets of the French training ship Duguay Trouin, and Mrs. Huff's dance at Rauscher's for the acquaintances of her young daughter, make an attractive program.

A party was given at the home of Miss Mabel Hart, No. 717 31 street northeast. The chief features of the evening were the zither duet, by Misses Mary and Harry Rupprecht; a mandolin and guitar trio by Miss Hart, Messrs. H. M. Tesi and Vivian Dunstan, and Prof. Walter T. Holt also played the mandolin. The program was presented on the part of Mr. H. Rupprecht, of a number of characteristic egg souvenirs. A dainty collation was served at 11 o'clock. Among those present were Misses Belle and Jennie Wallace, Mabel Edell, Mae Gorman, Nellie Sherwood, Rose Dawson, Misses Powers, Misses H. H. Williams, Rupprecht, and Messrs. Roy Dawson, Fred Dawson, H. M. Tesi, Buddi Gaston, Wm. J. Jones.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cambrian Society was held Monday evening at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Stephens, No. 428 College street. The musical and literary features consisted of Welsh melody by the society; vocal solos by Miss Alice Burns; reading, by Mr. H. H. Williams and Dr. T. J. Jones; recitation, by Mr. T. C. Williams, and an address by Dr. L. G. Powers on Welsh history and names. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams, Mr. J. A. Reece, Mr. H. H. Burns and the Misses Burns, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Powers, Mr. W. L. Roberts of Emporia, Kan.; Mrs. Morgan Thomas and the Misses Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, Miss Gladys Harper, Mr. D. J. Roberts and Mr. R. J. Jones. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Lucy M. Moore, who will be remembered as one of the most popular members of her class when she attended the Washington High School several years ago, is to be married Tuesday, the 23d instant, to Mr. George H. Wilkes, of Lakeside, a grandson of the late Admiral Wilkes, United States navy. Miss Moore has resided away from the city since she graduated from high school, and has returned to Washington recently, and is with her mother at 1017 21st street. The wedding will occur in St. John's Church, and because of the dearth of space, the bride and groom, the bride's sister, Miss Wilkes, United States navy, a brother of the groom, the invitations have been limited to relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Bettie J. Harris of 561 G street, after spending Easter Sunday with friends in Baltimore, has gone to Raleigh, N. C., to attend the marriage of her cousin, Miss Jane L. Harris, to Mr. Wm. H. Harris, of Marks of Montgomery, Ala. Miss Andrews is the only daughter of Col. A. B. Andrews, vice president of the Chesapeake and Potomac Ferry Company, and is a member of the Board of the Orphan Asylum and Lyceum during the entire afternoon a scene of the greatest happiness was in progress. Mrs. James F. Barbour gave an Easter treat of all manner of good things, including cream cake, candy, and other delicacies, and hats, tops and other toys to the ninety boys of the house. The rosy-cheeked youngsters gave a pleasant entertainment, and the benefactress and her small daughter, Marguerite, as well as presenting them with flowers. Rev. Dr. Stafford was present at the party.

A pretty wedding was celebrated Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. L. Volst, 1910 Pennsylvania avenue, when her daughter, Emma B. Volst, was married to Oscar Z. Homer, of Harborside, Messel. The bride wore a handsome blue foulard silk dress trimmed with white chiffon and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Lilly Holst and the best man Howard B. Homer. After a reception from 4 to 6 the happy couple left for their future home in Philadelphia.

The children's fair yesterday at Mr. and Mrs. Munn's home was as great a success as any of the events of the day. The young daughters of the household, with Grace Jarvis, Evelyn Walsh, Gwendolyn Frouke and others, offered the work accomplished at their sewing class during the past winter, which found ready and appreciative purchasers. Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Huff were present with Mrs. Munn as the heads of the enterprise, the proceeds of which will be given to the Children's Hospital.

The Columbian Pan-Fraternity dance last night at Rauscher's gave a delightful time to a large company. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Harbison, David J. Hill, Mrs. Gallaudet, Mrs. John Joy Edson and Mrs. Needham, who received in the pink parlor, with Grace Jarvis, Evelyn Walsh, Gwendolyn Frouke and Mr. J. H. Deis, for Theta Delta Chi. A dainty collation was served before midnight.

Among those present were Mrs. Benjamin, Misses Jackson, Eynon, Morgan, Pierce, Le Duc, Greene, Shynor, Molloy, Dyer, to mention a few. Prof. and Mrs. Lansdale, Muhleman, Bellis, Weider, Tolson, Manning, Russell, Marean, Walker, Hendricks, Bliss, Holtzman, McCall, Ritchey, Rice, Bright, Birch, Briley, H.
